About Nicoline

Nicoline is an Italian furniture brand with handmade total comfort. We are inclined to achieve a product with exclusive design and elevated standards.

The founder, Nicola Palasciano, started his career as an apprentice at the age of nine with the Industrial Group Natuzzi Italia. At the age of fifteen, thanks to his passion and devotion to his job, he gained full trust in Pasquale Natuzzi (the CEO of Natuzzi Italia). As a result, Natuzzi trusted him for the oversight of the upholstery department for the sofa's production addressed to the United States market.

In 1992, Nicola Palasciano's serious determination and persistence in doing great things, led him to create his own brand: Nicoline.

Today, with more than thirty years of experience, Nicoline became an important and well-known manufacturing company: a synonym of quality, cure of finest details and constant pursuit of innovative materials. A strong industrial entity inclined to achieve a product with exclusive design and elevated standards, entirely Made in Italy.

Every productive phase is internal, conducted within the company. Nicoline boasts an avant-garde prototype department which closely operates with designers of international fame. The company firmly relies on talented experts in the sector for the cut, stitching and upholstery departments for their sophisticated techniques and working experience.
